WJZY-TV P O.Box 668400 Charlotte, N C 28266-8400

TO ALL EMPLOYEES,

We sincerely appreciate the outstanding support your staff of WJZY-TV have continually provided the North Carolina National Guard. We are proud of our relationship with the 100 North Carolina counties where we are located in 75 with 94 armories and we've never forgotten that our first mission is to support the local community. Without your generous contribution of our Non-Commercial Sustaining Announcements, we could not adequately man, equip and train the soldiers necessary for our local, state and federal missions.

With your help, we have maintained a force of over 10,300 soldiers throughout North Carolina who serve part-time and are committed full-time to being ready when needed. We have helped thousands of these citizen-soldiers earn a college degree, receive formal training and gain specialized skills. The National Guard is unique among Armed Services, with a dual mission to the state and nation. With lineage dating to 1636, we are proud to be American's oldest Armed Services.

We know how valuable your airtime is and we humbly appreciate the trust you've placed in us. If we can be of service to you now or in the future, please let us know.

Sincerely,

SFC, NCARNG

Dear Joe,

Thank you for your contribution to The Third Annual Award Dinner and to the Wole Soyinka Project: Truth, Memory & Reconciliation. The words of Keynote Speaker, Wole Soyinka were moving and memorable. Both Professor Soyinka and Sister Mary Thomas Burke call on our highest instincts and encourage us to take action for humankind here and everywhere. It is through your unmeasured and sincere gift as well as your action-oriented commitment to the mission of The Echo Foundation that the Wole Soyinka Project has been possible.

During Professor Soyinka's visit to Charlotte, he participated in numerous educational activities that utilized the arts as a catalyst to unite the city on issues of humanity, justice and race relations. The Wole Soyinka Project: Truth, Memory & Reconciliation, was kicked off on January 24, 2002, with Student Tolerance Day, a day which allowed students to explore the concept of human rights and justice in preparation for Wole Soyinka's visit. The curriculum materials for this event were available to both private and public school educators free of charge.

Tolerance Day was followed by a Student Dialogue with Professor Soyinka at Providence High School providing an opportunity for these compassionate and sensitive students to ask their most urgent questions about human rights and justice for all people. This dialogue will be part of the documentary created by WJZY-UPN 46 and will air on Cable Channel 8, March 25, 2002 at 8 PM. The project also included a writing and arts competition for high school students.

By all measures, The Wole Soyinka Project has been a resounding success! Over 700 students and teachers participated in the Student Dialogue, 560 plus individuals attended the Third Annual Award Dinner, and many more attended the Library Film Festival, the Dramatic Reading of the National Black Theatre Festival, and the Evening of Poetry with Moving Poets Theater of Dance.

Your commitment to human dignity, justice and moral courage through supporting the work of Echo is sincerely appreciated. You join many others in and around the community who help us act upon our mission "...to sponsor and facilitate those voices that speak of human dignity, justice and moral courage in a way that will lead to positive action for humankind."

The Echo Foundation International Board of Advisors and the Charlotte Board of Trustees join us in thanking you for your support in bringing The Wole Soyinka Project to the Charlotte Community. We hope that you are pleased to have been a voice for human dignity through your contribution to The Echo Foundation and that you will continue to be proud to collaborate with us.

With all best wishes,

Stephanie G. Ansaldo President & Founder

Hi Linda & Joe-

I suppose I knew during the WS Project the vast amount of time you had committed to filming, production, etc. but, watching the results of your efforts play out last night in prime time demonstrated the scope of your gift to Echo and the Charlotte community So, thank you again for your time, talent and dedication. Many, many people will benefit from this generous contribution. Joe, you did a great job summarizing a complex man and multi-facted program. Now, perhaps, you can kick back a little and enjoy the kudos!

Wole Soyinka Documentary

Joe,

As Chairperson of Echo, I wanted to congratulate you on the powerful documentary that you created of the Wole Soyinka visit to Charlotte. The documentary showed great sensitivity and deep understanding of the subject matter and the importance of the issues raised by Soyinka. I was particularly moved by the scenes involving the school children and the interview that you conducted with him. It is also very impressive that 50,000 people saw the show when it aired. Through creating and showing this documentary, WJZY demonstrated its strong commitment to the Charlotte community as well as its commitment to promoting diversity, tolerance and human understanding. Your program created a tremendous "Echo" for the Soyinka visit by enabling so many viewers to experience the event through the documentary

Joe, I want to offer my profound thanks to you and all of the people at WJZY

Dear Echo Trustees,

As you know, WJZY-UPN created a documentary of the Wole Soyinka Project. They attended every event associated with the Project and filmed hours of footage in order to develop a comprehensive documentation of Echo's work for the Charlotte Community. The documentary aired on Cable Channel 8 on March 25 and today we have just received the statistic that according to Nielsen estimates nearly 50,000 people watched the Wole Soyınka special.

The generosity of WJZY-UPN coupled with their dedication to education through supporting the work of Echo has been a substantial gift to us and to the entire community. If anyone wishes to thank Joe Heaton, Program Director, his contact information is below. We will be inviting him to our May 13 Board Meeting for a showing of the 30min. film. With thanks to each of you for making the Wole Soyinka Project the substantial success that is has been,

warm regards, Stephanie

On behalf of the Board of Directors and Staff, I am writing to thank you formally for sponsoring the appearance of "Cee Cee Michaela" (UPN "Girlfriends") at the May 9, 2002, "Traditions In Jazz" benefit for the Center.

Your sponsorship in the amount of $450 helped to make this first annual event a success and enjoyable by all. Proceeds from this event goes directly to fund exhibits and performances at the Center.

The staff and I are motivated by your support and the direction in which the Center is moving. Even though there were many challenges this past year, your sponsorship reiterates for us that we are here for all the people of Charlotte.

Once again and as always, thank you very much for your gift and welcome to the Afro-American Cultural Center's family. I am looking forward to talking with you regarding how we can work together on next years' event. We look forward to a long and beneficial relationship with you.

Dear Jeff

The STV Magazine's November 1999 Issue is wonderful! When will this issue be posted on the website? When I pulled up the STV Magazine, I noticed the February Issue

We received copies of the November magazine today to distribute at school. I came home tonight and read the entire magazine before I knew it!

I am a Kindergarten Teacher in Charlotte, NC as well as the Geography Awareness Week (GAW) Outreach Coordinator for the North Carolina Geographic Alliance (NCGA). Our members are teachers from across NC. I would like to let other teachers know about STV Magazine. Can they send an e-mail and request a copy or class sets of the November STV Magazine?

Is it all right with the magazine editors if I send out the websites listed in the magazine?

This year's theme for Geography Awareness Week is: "GEOGRAPHY & TECHNOLOGY Think the World of Your Community." Teachers who received the National Geographic Society's GAW Packet will be discussing their communities and technology of today as well as from yesterday during GAW Week, November 15-19, 1999 We will also have a GIS Day (Geographic Information Systems) on Friday, 11-19-99.

The current issue goes along with the theme in that the lighthouses are in our community and the Wright Brothers used technology and geography skills in their daily lives.

I am sure that teachers across NC would be thrilled with the STV Magazine and would come to rely on the contents to enhance their curriculums.

If you would like to know more about the Geography Awareness Week, please contact me. If STV would like to post information about GAW on the website, I can furnish that as well.

Sincerely. Sue Thomas Westerly Hills Elementary School 4420 Denver Avenue Charlotte, NC 28208 343-6021

Dear Jeff:

On behalf the employees and Boards of Directors of Holy Angels, please accept our deepest appreciation for the wonderful address you gave at our Employee Giving Tree Dinner at Cramer Mountain Country Club this past Thursday night. We had high expectations of your speech, and we were not disappointed!

Your speech was warm, funny, moving, and most importantly, heartfelt. We feel very blessed to hear your perspective on how "right" Holy Angels is. Numerous employees have commented on how much they truly enjoyed your speech. They felt very appreciated and motivated by your kind words.

As you know the Giving Tree dinner allows Holy Angels, and in particular, the Boards of Directors, to say thank you to the many employees who support Holy Angels financially through the Giving Tree. We are very blessed to have employees who give so much of their time, talents and treasure to Holy Angels. This dinner is just one small way for us to express our gratitude and we thank you for being a part of this wonderful evening.

Again, many thanks for your speech, as well as your continued support of our special ministry here at Holy Angels.

Sincerely,

Lynne Reyburn, Vice President Holy Angels Foundation, Inc.

Jamber Sheely, Annual Fund Coordinator Holy Angels Foundation, Inc.
